

News

» Preston Group acquires 26th Maeda mini crawler crane from Pace Cranes

4 March 2009

AUSTRALIAN hire company Preston Group has acquired its 26th Maeda mini crawler crane in three years as it seeks to become the 'leading hirer of mini crawler cranes in Australia'.

Preston Group established its mini hire crane division in 2006 to supplement its existing range of materials handling solutions.

Today, Preston Group has depots in New South Wales, Queensland and Victoria. The company says it is on the way to opening stores in South Australia, Western Australian and the Northern Territory by mid 2009.

Sydney-based Pace Cranes delivered the Maeda mini crawler crane to Preston Group.

Pace Cranes is the sole distributor of the Japanese Maeda crane range in Australia and has supplied more than 300 Maeda mini crawler cranes to buyers around the country.

Newsletter sign up

Sign up to receive the latest breaking news

Advertise with us
Editorial Guidelines
Integrate our Feed

Archives

News Archive
Feature Articles
Product News
Newsletter

News barometer

Do you think current crane operation legislation is adequate?

Yes

52%

No

48%

mini crawler cranes crane hire factory of special cranes www.witkraan.nl

Ads by Google

Western Mule Cranes Fold-A-Way Bumper Cranes Telescoping Boom Cranes to 2500

